INCIDENT DESCRIPTION	Officers were dispatched to Lot 11 after a non-resident student requested help with a person in her vehicle that was possibly suffering from a bipolar episode. Once on scene, Officers spoke with all of the parties and the individual was a friend and had no affiliation to the University. The two students that were present refused to allow the individual to stay with them and the individual tried calling for help but no one could come and help her. The individual was transported to her house off campus by officers. The individual was given a trespass order for underage and consumed alcohol and her friends stayed with her until Police were on scene. No citations were issued because of the Help Seeking Protocol that was followed.
