INCIDENT DESCRIPTION	While on routine patrol of the CRI Deck, an officer observed a suspicious vehicle parked on level 5 of the CRI deck. The vehicle's passenger side front tire was flat, and all the windows were covered with cardboard. The officer notified dispatch of the NC license plate, and it was determined the plate was expired with an order for pickup and an insurance stop. The officer contacted the driver of the car, a non-resident student. The officer asked -the resident student if she required assistance with her flat tire, to which she said yes. The vehicle's equipment was inadequate, so the tire could not be changed. During the interaction, the student explained that she was living in her vehicle and had attempted to contact the university for assistance but had not heard back. The student was provided with information to assist her in getting the tire replaced and was informed of the services available on campus. The license plate was picked up. A person of concern Maxient was completed.
