INCIDENT DESCRIPTION	Dispatch received a call from CMPD in regard to a trailer located on campus that was reported to be stolen from Cornelius approximately two months ago. Officers responded and contacted the reporting person who stated that while driving in the area they saw the trailer. The owner of the company in possession of the trailer stated that it had been purchased last month, and they presented the Officers with a photograph of a bill of sale. Officers conducted a records check of the VIN number of the trailer and confirmed it to be stolen. Officers requested dispatch to contact Cornelius PD, who requested the trailer to be released to the reporting person who is the registered owner of the trailer. Since the matter was determined to be a civil matter, Officers advised the company in possession of the trailer to contact the seller of the trailer to settle the matter. The trailer was returned to the registered owner and a report was completed.
