INCIDENT DESCRIPTION	UNC Charlotte officers responded to a call in Woodward Hall that several individuals were actively disrupting a student organization at a sanctioned event in a reserved space. Upon arrival, the officers attempted to remove the disruptors, but they refused stating they wanted to know under what policy. They eventually were removed, and the policy and law were explained to them, however they continued to delay by interrupting the officers. One specific unaffiliated male seemed to be the leader of the group. He (the only male) refused to remove his mask, continued to delay by obstructing the officers. The unaffiliated thirty-seven-year-old male was arrested for related charges and more charges are pending. He was also trespassed from the University. Order was restored to the registered event, and it continued.
