| INCIDENT DESCRIPTION        | An officer was checking the area of the 49 th Acre when he saw a vehicle driving away that was backed up to the building. The officer followed the vehicle but did not notice anything out of the ordinary. The officer was able to get the tag number. The officer checked the building and found the rear door was not secured but all the inside doors were secured, and nothing appeared tampered with. The officer secured the exterior door and left. |                                |                       |                         |                                      |                |
